(25) assault with intent to commit a sexual offense in the first degree; and

(26) assault with intent to commit a sexual offense in the second degree.

(b) (1) Except as provided in subsection (f) of this section, on conviction for a fourth time of a crime of violence, a person who has served three separate terms of confinement in a correctional facility as a result of three separate convictions of any crime of violence shall be sentenced to life imprisonment without the possibility of parole.

(2) Notwithstanding any other law, the provisions of this subsection are mandatory.

(c) (1) Except as provided in subsection (f) of this section, on conviction for a third time of a crime of violence, a person shall be sentenced to imprisonment for the term allowed by law but not less than 25 years, if the person:

(i) has been convicted of a crime of violence on two prior separate occasions:

1. in which the second or succeeding crime is committed after there has been a charging document filed for the preceding occasion; and

2. for which the convictions do not arise from a single incident; and

(ii) has served at least one term of confinement in a correctional facility as a result of a conviction of a crime of violence.

(2) The court may not suspend all or part of the mandatory 25-year sentence required under this subsection.

(3) A person sentenced under this subsection is not eligible for parole except in accordance with the provisions of § 4–305 of the Correctional Services Article.

(d) (1) (i) Except as provided in paragraph (2) of this subsection, on conviction for a second time of a crime of violence committed on or after October 1, 1994, a person shall be sentenced to imprisonment for the term allowed by law, but not less than 10 years, if the person:

1. has been convicted on a prior occasion of a crime of violence, including a conviction for a crime committed before October 1, 1994; and

2. served a term of confinement in a correctional facility for that conviction.

(ii) The court may not suspend all or part of the mandatory 10-year sentence required under this paragraph.

(2) (i) On conviction for a second time of a crime of violence committed on or after October 1, 2018, a person shall be sentenced to imprisonment for the term allowed by law, but not less than 10 years, if the person:

1. has been convicted on a prior occasion of a crime of violence, including a conviction for a crime committed before October 1, 2018; and

2. served a term of confinement in a correctional facility for that conviction.

(ii) The court may not suspend all or part of the mandatory 10-year sentence required under this paragraph.

(iii) A person sentenced under this paragraph is not eligible for parole except in accordance with the provisions of § 4–305 of the Correctional Services Article.

(e) If the State intends to proceed against a person as a subsequent offender under this section, it shall comply with the procedures set forth in the Maryland Rules for the indictment and trial of a subsequent offender.

(f) (1) This subsection does not apply to a person registered or eligible for registration under Title 11, Subtitle 7 of the Criminal Procedure Article.

(2) A person sentenced under this section may petition for and be granted parole if the person:

(i) is at least 60 years old; and

(ii) has served at least 15 years of the sentence imposed under this section.

(3) The Maryland Parole Commission shall adopt regulations to implement this subsection.
